

APPEAL CHART

SERIAL NO. 10/701,308

Examiner: Charlie Lion Agwumezie

Art Unit 3621

Phrase No.	Claim Description	Roger U.S. 2002/0049549 A1	Johnson Jr. U.S. No. 6,078,888
Claims 1	providing a said remote location device	computer 312 & 310 see fig. 2	tag 100. see fig. 2 preparing said remote location device for registration	initial set up period. see 0067	“when initially configuring tag 100.” see col. 8, lines 55-65 registering said remote location device on said central control authorization point		during initialization, the “host network 300 generates a tag identification number (ID) and a main tag key, which is preferably a DES key, and directly injects these numbers into the tag 100. see col. 8, lines 55-65
	from said central control authorization point		“from the host network 300.” see col. 8, lines 55-65 and storing said unique address on said remote location device		stores it at tag 100. see fig. 2
	and assigning		“a different main tag key is injected into every of the tag 100” that is that each tag 100 is issued or granted or assigned a different ID. see col. 8, lines 55-65
	and transmitting an encrypted address unique		the unique encrypted ID is communicated to tag 100. see col. 8, lines 55-65
	to each said remote location device	Computer 312 & 310 see fig. 2	to each tag 100 see fig. 2